TEST CASE 1: clear clauses, explicit deadlines and source-citation checks

SYNTHETIC TEST DOCUMENT - fictional parties and terms; for software testing only; not a real contract or legal advice.

Parties and premises

This fictional agreement is dated 1 October 2026 between Asha Rao (Owner) and Kiran Das (Tenant) for the residential unit identified as Flat 4B, 18 Lake View Road, Example City. The names and address are invented.

1. Term

The tenancy begins on 1 October 2026 and is scheduled to end on 30 September 2027, unless ended earlier under a clause in this agreement.

2. Monthly rent

The Tenant shall pay INR 25,000 per month in advance, on or before the fifth calendar day of each month, by bank transfer to the account designated by the Owner.

3. Security deposit

The Tenant shall pay an interest-free security deposit of INR 50,000 before receiving the keys. The deposit is security for unpaid rent and documented damage beyond ordinary wear and tear.

4. Utilities

The Tenant is responsible for electricity and internet charges based on bills for the unit. The Owner is responsible for the building's common-area electricity charge.

Use, maintenance and termination

5. Permitted use

The unit may be used as a private residence by the Tenant and one additional occupant listed in the move-in form. The Tenant must obtain written consent before subletting.

6. Repairs

The Tenant must report water leaks or electrical faults promptly. The Owner will arrange repairs to structural systems. The agreement does not define a specific number of days for non-emergency repairs.

7. Access

Except for an emergency, the Owner will give at least 24 hours notice before entering the unit for inspection or repairs, at a reasonable time.

8. Notice to terminate

Either party may end the tenancy by giving 60 days written notice to the other party. Notice must be delivered by email followed by a signed hard copy.

9. Deposit return

Within 15 working days after the Tenant returns all keys and vacates, the Owner will return the remaining deposit after deducting unpaid amounts and documented damage beyond ordinary wear and tear.

10. Document limitation

This synthetic example does not state which local tenancy law applies, and it does not determine whether any term is legally enforceable.
