Rental Agreement with Ambiguities

TEST CASE 4: conflicting notice periods and undefined standards

SYNTHETIC TEST DOCUMENT - fictional parties and terms; for software testing only; not a real contract or legal advice.

Parties and basic terms

This synthetic document is dated 1 September 2026 between Meera Iyer (Owner) and Dev Patel (Tenant) for Unit 12, Sample Residency, Example City. All details are fictional.

1. Term

The rental term starts 1 September 2026 and ends 31 August 2027 unless renewed in writing.

2. Rent

Monthly rent is INR 18,000, due by the third calendar day of each month.

3. Security deposit

The Tenant pays INR 36,000 as a security deposit. The Owner will return the deposit within 15 working days after handover, after reasonable deductions for unpaid charges or damage.

4. Repair response

The Owner will arrange non-emergency repairs within a reasonable time. No specific maximum number of days is given.

Rental Agreement with Ambiguities - continued

SYNTHETIC TEST DOCUMENT - fictional parties and terms; for software testing only; not a real contract or legal advice.

Termination and inconsistencies

5. Tenant notice

Either party may end the tenancy with 30 calendar days written notice.

6. Termination procedure

Despite Clause 5, either party must provide 60 calendar days written notice before the tenancy can end.

7. Deposit deductions

Deductions may be made for damage, but this clause does not define how a deduction is assessed or what evidence must be supplied.

8. Missing context

This example does not identify the applicable local law. It does not resolve the conflict between Clauses 5 and 6.